BURNSVILLE WOMEN OF TODAY

We are a community-based volunteer organization dedicated to service, growth and friendship.

SERVICE

We choose to participate in many activities in our local community, along with support state and national programs. Our service projects involve both donating time and raising funds for various organizations and events.

Some of our events are:

- ♦ Spa...ahh charity fundraiser day of pampering
- ♦ Retro 5K Run/Walk
- ♦ Queen for the Day at Lewis House
- ♦ Adopt-A-Street

We have supported organizations such as Kids 'n Kinship, Breaking Free, Ella's Halo, Armful of Love, Dakota Woodlands, Beyond the Yellow Ribbon, Feed My Starving Children and many more both community and statewide.

Do you have an organization that you love? We are always looking for new ideas and new organizations we can support.

GROWTH

There are many growth opportunities through the Burnsville Women of Today. You can build your leadership skills by becoming an officer or programming manager or chairing an event. Members build skills in public speaking, budget management and team building.

We offer a variety of personal enrichment programs. We have a monthly book club and do programs covering topics such as stress relief, personal fitness, and change.

Do you have an interest or skill to share? Your ideas are welcome here!

FRIENDSHIP

We love to have FUN and make friends! Comedy club night, End of Summer bonfire, Halloween party, bocce ball tournament, holiday party & cookie contest, and Chocolate & Wine party are just a few of the socials that a member can be involved in. Check out our website for the latest events we have going on.

Socials take on many forms and themes. Where there is an inspiration, there is an excuse to get together with friends!

Guests are always welcome to attend any of our Chapter meetings or events. Come by and check us out!
